

The Spot

strives to create a space where people can gather, unwind, and connect. Our mission is to support and celebrate our local community, bringing people together through kava, conversation, and connection. We create a welcoming, sober atmosphere, where people can enjoy their first or second chances.

What is Kava?

A traditional South Pacific root drink known for its calming, social, and mood-lifting effects. It's been shared ceremonially for centuries in places like Fiji, Vanuatu, and Hawai'i.

Drink it from a can or in the traditional style from a shell.

Enjoy relaxation without intoxication. Ease stress and anxiety without hangovers.

Spread the Word

As an independent and locally owned business, we rely on patrons like you to spread the word. If you enjoyed your time here, invite a friend. Consider leaving us an online review.
